

On the wings of a mystical white elephant, two children embark on an extraordinary journey to discover pathways to peace and the humanity in all of us.

‘This beautiful picture book is based on a parable of the blind men and the elephant. The ethereal illustrations are a rich tapestry, bringing depth to the words and challenging the reader to discover their own truth.’

Reading Time, Children’s Book Council of Australia

‘The book demonstrates with great power that we can teach our children profound truths and timeless values.’

Professor D.R. Pattanaik Banaras Hindu University
Varanasi, India
